

Stockman / Stationhand (Garangula)

Job Description and Responsibilities

The position is directly reportable to the Livestock Manager.

Duties

Assisting the Livestock Manager and Overseer for animal health and husbandry including:-

- Shearing, crutching and all animal health treatments associated.
- Lamb and calf marking. Assist contractors with accuracy of earmarks and other applications.
- Assist and monitor livestock health/condition. Participate in recommendations for feed rates for body weight. Feed livestock when required.
- Assist in monitoring livestock for parasites.
- Maintain accurate livestock number records during yarding.
- Maintain accurate records of livestock deaths – report to manager.
- Assist overseeing livestock seasonal events such as lambing, calving, and weaning.
- Awareness of relevant livestock chemical applications and product labels.
- Maintain and clean livestock water supply.
- Be involved general farm repairs and maintenance when called upon.

Safety

- To follow all safety disciplines involved with chemicals and be aware of all OH & S procedures. Maintain strict chemical usage register.
- To be aware of Work Health and Safety issues when operating all machinery.
- To be aware of Work Health and Safety issues when handling livestock.

Knowledge, Skills & Experience

- Experience in a similar role.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills with eye for detail.
- Current drivers' licence.
- Working dogs essential.
- Willing to work within established procedures.

Personal qualities

- Honest, reliable, and friendly manner.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Demonstrate good leadership and organisational skills.
- Awareness of current Work Health & Safety requirements in the workplace.

Salary and package details and conditions

Salary will be dependent on skills and experience. The salary package includes a pro-rata base salary, superannuation, and other benefits such as staff housing and motor vehicle allocation.

Three-month probation period.

The Federal Pastoral Industry Award is relevant to the position details.

Normal working hours 7.00am - 5.00pm.

20 minutes for morning tea and 30 minutes for lunch.

Additional hours negotiated due to seasonal calendar events.

For further information please contact:

Jon Bassingthwaighte
Romani Pastoral Company
Redbank
Harden NSW 2587

Mobile 0427 868 243

Email: jbass@romanipastoral.com.au